

Surprise questions from a comparative perspective : kick-off workshop

Parrot & Procope PHC programs

Organized by Agnès Celle with the support of CLILLAC-ARP and LLF

Olympe de Gouges, Room 830

April 16

9:30-10:00

Coffee – Introduction of the participants

10:00-10:45

Issues on surprise questions in French, Estonian and German

Agnès Celle, Anu Treikelder, Andreas Trotzke

10:45-11:30

Surprise-induced questions

Agnès Celle, Anne Jugnet, Laure Lansari

11:30-12:15

The Estonian clitic –ki/-gi : a polarity focus marker with ‘mirative’ implications

Heete Sahkai

12:30-14 :30

Lunch - Buffon

14 :30-15 :15

Wh-questions and their responses in Estonian everyday interaction

Andra Rumm

15 :15-16 :00

Issues about the reason reading of a question

Damien Fleury & Lucia Tovená

16:00-16:45

Discussion

April 17

9:30-10:15

On the contributions of prosody in the disambiguation of a reason vs a manner reading of French comment-questions

Lisa Brunetti & Hiyon Yoo

10:15-11:00

French wh-in-situ questions at the interfaces

Ramona Wallner

11:00-11:45

Word order alternations in French wh-in-situ interrogatives

Katharina Kaiser

12:00-14:00

Lunch – Buffon

14:00-14:45

Intonation of different utterance types in Estonian

Eva Liina Asu, Pärtel Lippus

14:45-15:30

Comparable data for crosslinguistic studies: experience from some comparative studies between Estonian and other languages

Renate Pajusalu & Anu Treikelder

15:30-17:00

Discussion

April 18

9:30-11:45

Designing of experiments : what, where, who, how, when

12:00-14:00

Lunch – Buffon

14:00-17:00

Organization and funding of the Konstanz workshop in November

Outline of the 2-year program and future projects

